

Thursday, Feb. 13th – B Day!

A reminder if you have band lessons with Mr. Hansen today, they will still be at your original time. Come see Mr. Morgan if you need a pass.

ELL students, you will continue testing today. 7th grade ELL students should be in the library at this time, 8th grade ELL students report to the library 2nd period, and 6th grade ELL students report to the library 3rd period.

Boys' Basketball Games tonight at Brody! Unfortunately, Brody has only 2 teams playing tonight, so the Gray game has been cancelled. And, Gray and Silver teams will have practice tonight from 4:00 till 5:15. Blue and White teams, your bus will leave for Brody right after school. The Blue team will play first and the White team will play second. Good Luck Gentleman!

It's the last day to get your carnation! Everyone Can Change the World Club is selling them during student lunches for $2 each. The carnations will be delivered tomorrow on Valentine's Day during Mustang Minutes and 4th period for Central Students.

Our Girl Scouts will be selling their famous cookies right after school today from 3:25 to 3:45!

Debate Practice today in the library right after school until 5.

Show Choir Practice until 4:10 in room 133.

Arcade after school until 4.

Art Club in room 111 until 4:30

Merrill Gazette in room 211 until 4:45

Don't forget to sign up if you will be riding the late bus! You need to sign up each day you are riding! The sign-up clip board is in the main office.

Merrill's Got Talent! Applications to audition for the end of the year talent show are now available in the front office. If you are interested in performing, please grab an application and return it to Mrs. Panek by Friday, February 28. Thank you to a team of 8th graders for organizing this year's event!

Student Safety: As a reminder all visitors or students arriving after the start of the school day must check in at the office. While I know you are trying to be helpful, please do not open any exterior doors after 8:30.
