BEST BUDDIES:

Best Buddies is a group grounded in respect and inclusion where students with and without intellectual and/or physical disabilities come together to create meaningful friendships. We plan monthly group events but buddies are encouraged to find ways to interact and hang out weekly! This group is open to any student wanting to expand their friendships and help make Merrill a welcoming and inclusive place for ALL students!

DRAMA; Merrill Theatre Collective: Led by Mr. Davenport (a local professional actor and Roosevelt High School's Theatre Arts teacher) seeks students interested in joining a virtual (for now) club of creative artists, comedians, poets, actors, and any student wanting a place to express who they are in a fun, respectful, and educational way. All students are encouraged and welcome to be a part of our collaborative, funky group. You don't have to have any previous acting or performing experience, because Merrill Theatre Collective is about educating young artists to explore their expressive creative side in the performing arts. MTC will offer virtual workshops and performance opportunities, in unique partnership with Roosevelt Repertory Theatre at TRHS.

MidPoint Poetry is a RunDSM + Movement 515 program: This program is specifically for middle school students! The program's goal is to provide a creative outlet to students to write their own Spoken Word Poetry, Songs and Raps! We meet once a week, create together, talk about social justice issues, play games, and build community. Once a year we also get super competitive and face off against the other DMPS middle schools to try and earn the coveted golden boombox!

Mustang TV:

Purpose: The purpose of this club is to teach students the fundamentals of journalism and mass communication and give them a hands-on experience with the current tools of the industry and a real-world feel with deadlines, etc.

Goal: The goal for each semester is to cover events as they happen and report in long-form feature style on those events, assembling them into a single show/newscast anchored and produced by students. This show will be delivered by the end of the semester to the web editor for posting and distribution.
